

OFFICE OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF ONTARIO

MEDIA ADVISORY

For immediate release

24 June 2008

Lieutenant Governor to Host Reception in Honour of the Centre for ADD/ADHD Advocacy, Canada

TORONTO – The Hon. David C. Onley, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, and Her Honour, Ruth Ann Onley will host a reception in honour of the Centre for ADD/ADHD Advocacy, Canada on Wednesday 25 June 2008. CADDAC is a not-for-profit organization that provides leadership in education and advocacy for ADHD organizations and individuals with ADHD across Canada. CADDAC provides a wide-range of information for children, parents, doctors and educators.

Speakers will include the Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Umesh Jain, staff psychiatrist at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (Child, Youth & Family Service) and Ms. Heidi Bernhardt, RN, Founder and National Director of the Centre for ADHD/ADD Advocacy Canada (CADDAC).

DATE/TIME Wednesday 25 June / 3:00 PM. (Speeches begin at approximately 3:15 PM.)

LOCATION Committee Room 228, Legislative Building, Queen's Park

- 30 -

For information about the Lieutenant Governor's role, visit his website: www.Lt.gov.on.ca.

For further information, contact:
Nanda Casucci-Byrne
Office of the Lieutenant Governor
Tel. 416-325-7781